Picasso Art Journal: Leading Questions

Students choose a question that they think applies to each of their pictures.

- Why did you choose this picture? What attracted you to it?
- Does anything in this picture appeal to your senses of taste, sound, touch, feel, or taste? Explain.
- What puzzles you about this picture? What do you not understand?
- Does this picture remind you of something or someone you know? Who or what? Why?
- If a movie were made about his picture, what would the movie be about? Give details.
- What emotions does this picture make you feel? Sadness? Fear? Happiness? Anger? Frustration? Explain why it makes you feel this way.
- If this picture had background music, what song would you choose to be playing? How does it represent the picture?
- Poetry expresses emotions with words; art expresses emotions with pictures. Look closely at this picture. If it could talk, what would it say? Write a short poem about the picture.
